

Year 6 have been learning about life during the Second World War. One focus has been rationing and the effect it had on the nation's health.

Here they are seen making a very healthy and nutritious Lord Woolton's Pie, and also considering just how meagre some of the rations were.

